

Chair of History of Polish Law

8th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

CUIUS REGIO, EIUS RELIGIO – HISTORY OF RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CHURCH AND STATE

Kacper Górski
Leader of the Section of State and Law History TBSP UJ
Students Learned Society
Straszewskiego Street 25/9
31-007 Kraków
konferencjakrakow@gmail.com

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to give you information on an international conference Cuius regio, eius religio – history of relationship between Church and State, 14-15th December, 2013. The event is organized by employers, PhD students and members of the Student Learned Society of the Faculty of Law and Administration at the Jagiellonian University.

We would like to invite young researchers of law and the history of law: graduate students, PhD students and PhD graduates. Applications for the conference should be received until the 17th November 2013 on an application form and should include a shortsummary of main theses (maximum 300 words; methodology, bibliography). The applications will be verified and subsequently a response will be send. What is essential, the positive decision is required to make a payment. A presentation cannot take longer than 20 minutes and texts for publishing cannot exceed the length of 20000 characters. Two languages will be used during the conference: Polish and English. An edited book, composed of verified texts, is expected to be published, likewise antecedent events.

We provide participants with one meal during the conference. A conference fee is fixed at 70 zlotys (PLN)/18 (euro). Acommodation is not included, nevertheless help with finding hotel or hostel will be provided. Bank account number will be attached to the response to your application.

For more information please contact us via e-mail.

We strongly invite you to come to Krakow.

Sincerely yours,