

Faculty of Law
University of West Bohemia

would like to invite you to an international conference

State and law in the course of time 2020

which takes place on 4th and 5th June 2020 in Pilsen

as a part of the conference shall be the meeting of the departments of the legal history of the Czech Republic and Slovakia.

International and interdisciplinary conference with a broad scope of topics that would like to welcome not only legal historians but also participants of legal experts in other fields of law as well as historians, archivists, archaeologists and other professionals whose field of academic is also involving the development of state and law since beginning till present time. Unlike in the strict topic events, the main goal of the conference is to allow participants to present results of their research in the broadest possible platform, which may offer a place for the meeting of experts interesting themselves in the history of law and related disciplines.

The subject of the meeting of the departments shall be aimed at the information on the scope and focus of teaching Roman law and legal history, including both compulsory and elective courses, topics of deepening inter-department cooperation in personnel, conferences and publishing, and also information on the most important scientific outputs and research plans of departments members.

The conference will last two days. Besides both, the meeting of the departments on 4th June and the conference sessions on 4th and 5th June, a culturally social program will also be prepared.

Expected time of each paper presentation is ca 15 minutes. Submitted papers will be published in peer-reviewed proceedings.

Languages: Czech, Slovak, Polish, German, English

Registration together with the annotations of the conference contributions are to be filled in electronically by 22st May 2020 at <https://www.fpr.zcu.cz/research/Aktualni-konference/Stat-pravo20/> or directly at <http://fpr.zcu.cz/State-Law>.
